Courtesies to Salespeople

Fair lady and unfair man, did it ever occur to you that you could sprinkle a whole lot of sunshine and pleasure along the byways of life if you would be just a bit more courteous to the salesladies and salesmen you buy of? Of course it is not expected that one should stop to enquire all about the family and the family cat, or exchange the social amenities of private life, but it would go a long ways to making life more pleasant if the clerks were treated with decent consideration, and not snapped at, and if a pretty girl, "joshed" and "kidded." If your own sister or mother was in such a position, you would demand greater courtesy; why not remember that the sales people you meet are surely some one's sisters, brothers, mothers or fathers. That haughty, overbearing stuff don't go very far anyway with experienced people, and a pleasant smile or courteous conversation will go a long ways to making life easier. Try it.

Who Are the Profiteers?

It is a self evident fact that the people are compelled to pay very much over fair values on nearly everything they must buy. So long as this was confined to the luxuries, it did not matter greatly, but people who buy luxuries are usually in such circumstances that a dollar more or less makes little difference to them; but when commodities from sugar to salt, the clothes we must wear and the food we must eat, are held at almost prohibitive prices, and several hundred per cent over cost of production, there is something wrong. It was formerly an aristocrat who spent $100 a month; now no one can live decently and support a family on this amount without stringent economies. Government commissions, state officials and city council enthusiasts have each taken a trial at the solution, but besides using reams of paper and barrels of wind have accomplished nothing and Mister Old H. C. L. continues to thrive and grow fat and will do so until means are devised to wipe out brokerage, and prevent commodities being handled by a dozen hands between producer and consumer, and allowing each of these "middle men" to make his profit. One economist says that it costs 54 per cent to deliver the goods from the producer to the consumer only and it is safe to say that the individual profits of each man through whose hands the goods pass makes at least enough percentage to double the original cost. The retailer has extraordinary expense, and as a rule makes only a fair profit, yet he must bear the opprobrium and blame for it all, although he must pay the profits of sometimes a dozen middlemen before he can get the goods on his shelves. Wipe out the "middlemen" and we believe it will go far to hasten the demise of H. C. L.

Englewood Boy May Win U. S. "Croix de Paix"

A national essay contest will be held Feb. 20th in which any boy or girl not above the senior high school grades may compete. The subject must be: "The Benefit of Enlistment in the U. S. Army." There is no age limit for contestants; no essay is to be more than 400 words, written in pen and ink, but only on one side of paper, and they will be judged on their originality, expression and sincerity. The decision will be made April 19th, "Independence Day," and the announcement made, then on May 5th the three boy or girl winners accompanied by parents or guardians (railroad fares and all expenses paid) will go to Washington and receive the prizes. The first is a gold medal suitably engraved, second a silver medal, and third a bronze, and in addition Secretary Baker of the war department will present each a silver cup to be retained by the school they attend. This is a golden opportunity and all boys and girls interested will be given fuller particulars and many interesting facts by visiting the recruiting station at 6001 S. Halsted St. General Pershing will make the announcement of the winners. Now hustle.

Sunday Afternoon Bible Exposition

By Rev. P. B. Fitzwater, D. D.

Every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Moody Bible Institute auditorium, there is held a meeting for the exposition of the Scriptures, usually by the dean, the Rev. James M. Gray, D. D., and for prayer and praise, the aim being to make clear the teachings of the Bible and apply them to the vital problems of everyday life. Some reasons why Christians should attend these services: 1. Because the Bible is given its rightful place as the authoritative rule of life; its living messages are presented without speculation. 2. Because the music is of the uplifting type, skillfully rendered by spiritual singers; it is classical in character yet warm and evangelical spirit. 3. Because the order of worship is dignified without being formal. 4. Because the service is not unduly prolonged, beginning at 4 and closing at 5, so that people who desire a spiritual retreat can avail themselves of it without interfering with other responsibilities.

See Barkey's shoe prices. (Adv.)

Mrs. Emil L. Zielke died Thursday at her home, 518 65th st., and services were held at Lanyon's chapel Saturday afternoon, the remains being taken to Omaha, Neb., for burial.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security, which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

Harvard

The popularity of the Harvard Theatre is well earned by the splendid shows put on there every day and every night. Manager "Jimmy" Costin is one of the best booking agents in the city and represents a line of the best houses in the town for which he can by combining his strength, secure plays that are not usually shown in out of the loop houses. It is always a safe bet that the first release of the best pictures will be at the Harvard and only the very best are featured here. It is noticeable that the "also" at the Harvard are good ones, as they secure comedies and short reels that are featured at smaller houses. Every day there is something bright and fresh at the Harvard, matinees as good as the evening shows.

Today, Friday, Jan. 30th, matinee and night. Charming Billie Burke in a new and humorous play, "Wanted, a Husband." She invented an engagement and set her wedding date. All she needed was a man. Then, traveling with friends on a train one day, she flung her arms 'round the neck of a perfect stranger, kissed him, and called him hers! After that you'll keep laughing for just about an hour. The "darling of the screen" in Samuel Hopkins Adams' popular romance of a bachelor maid who wouldn't stay single. Also the scream Mack Sennett comedy, "Speak Easy." Mutt & Jeff cartoon and latest Pathe News.

Saturday, Jan. 31st, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m. H. B. Warner, supported by a strong cast in a new play, "Haunting Shadows," a film version of the great mystery story, "The House of a Thousand Candles," by Meredith Nicholson. A high tension, thrilling mystery drama pulsing with action. Action and intrigue, suspense and thrills, which culminate in an exciting climax, make this drama of unusual entertainment value. Also a good Sunshine Comedy and International News. Matinee only, "The Invisible Hand."

In "The Woman in the Suitcase," Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 4th and 5th

Sunday and Monday, Feb. 1st and 2nd, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m. William Farnum in his latest triumph, "Heart Strings." A drama of the sacrifice of a brother for his little sister. A story of tender love, passion, misunderstanding! and fearful vengeance. A play that will charm every man, woman and child, with America's greatest creator of strong roles at his best. Also a good 2-part comedy, Pathe News and, for matinee only, "The Radium Mystery."

Tuesday, Feb. 3rd, matinee and night, Bryant Washburn in "Too Much Johnson," from the play of the same name. "Too Much Johnson" is about a man who allows a love for yachting to lead him into all sorts of amusing complications, which his own ingenuity is able to untangle in the end. Lois Wilson plays the leading feminine role and the rest of the supporting company is also high class. Donald Crisp directed the picture. It is a Paramount-Artcraft.

Wednesday and Thursday Feb. 4th and 5th, matinee and night, two big special days with big double feature programs. Enid Bennett in "The Woman in the Suitcase." The story centers around a vivacious young boarding school miss, who has always maddened at loss of a photo of her father and is shocked to discover the photograph of a comely woman, not her mother, in his suitcase. The picture bears an endearing inscription and convinces Mary, the heroine, that her father is carrying on an affair with the siren. She determines to rescue him. Come and see how she does it! Then as an added attraction, a startling, thrilling, never-to-be-forgotten picturization of the wild, death-dealing monster, "German Submarine U-35." Authentic, official, the real thing. Showing the destrucion of fifteen vessels, life aboard the "Sub," and all details of the warfare of horror. These pictures are genuine and were taken on board a real German U Boat for showing in Germany after she had won the war. Note:—It has been suggested that this film be used as evidence at the trial of the ex-"Kaiser."

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

Another big week at the Marlowe, beginning tonight with the great professional vaudeville revue of eight acts of stars in the profession whose work is at their best. Tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday an extraordinary bill is offered of top liners, the best, among whom may be mentioned The Valdemares, the comedy cycle and novelty act of the season; the world known comedians, Hamilton and Newport, and then Abrams and Johns in their funny sketch, "The Unexpected Witness," and the premier of them all which follows will be Lulu Carter and her wonderful Jazz Band, the great act where we all laugh. The rest of the week will be equally attractive as may be seen in the regular announcement, with the hat contest, in which some pretty girl gets a new bonnet free gratis, for nothing, and on Tuesday the local song contest, in which the winner receives a beautiful piano lamp.

The Marlowe is scientifically heated and ventilated and complies with the most stringent rules of the health department, so that there is perfect comfort and safety for the patrons as well as a dandy first class show.

Saturday matinee is as usual the bargain day for ladies and children and nowhere are better programs given, although the price is a mere trifle, but the management feel it due to the kiddies and their mammas that one performance a week may be given for them with the compliments of this successful show house, always acknowledge the family favorite. Go to the Marlowe at any time and you will see a good show.

EMPRESS THEATRE

Many in fact most people like a diversity in their amusements and right here is where the Empress theatre caters to your taste. In addition to showing a good run of feature pictures, they put on a vaudeville program unequalled by any house outside of the loop. They have a special arrangement in their bookings which includes many of the best on all the circuits and the stars of all kinds are glad to be considered good enough for the discriminating audiences of the Empress. They make a point of getting all attractions of diverse character, musical, entertainers that are operatic stars favor the audiences here, the many stunts new, novel and entertaining, that go to only the best houses are all booked at the Empress, and it makes no difference what day or night you visit the Empress you are sure to be entertained and amused. Get the habit, come once and we know you will be regular.

HALSTED THEATRE

The Halsted Theatre at 62nd and Halsted Sts. has the reputation of putting on the most popular of the latest films, the snappy, vigorous up-to-the-minute kind that grip and bind and make you remember the show long after you have gone home. Manager Frank is one of the shrewdest of bookers and the fact that he has run a certain film at his house is evidence of its excellence.

Tomorrow, Saturday, Jan. 31st, 1:30 p. m. continuous, one day special. Beautiful Alice Joyce, the popular Vitagraph star, will be seen in "Slaves of Pride." No word picture can portray the magnificent splendor, the vibrant, living charm and piquancy of Alice Joyce in this, her latest and best picture yet, "Slaves of Pride."

"Slaves of Pride" is a title that should be written in letters of gold, each letter several feet high, across the front of every theatre in the United States and Canada. It is a story of such impressive proportions, crammed full of human interest, and so perfect and beautiful in production, with such a heart-gripping appeal behind it all, that every man, woman and child should have the opportunity of seeing it. It is a picture that every one will see. Its fame will be spread from mouth to mouth until every theatre-goer on the continent shall have seen it.

Alice Joyce plays the part of this all-conquering, soul-stirring woman, Patricia. Always a favorite, no one can see Alice Joyce in "Slaves of Pride" without saying that her winning, lovable personality surpasses any story that may be created for her. Miss Joyce doesn't act. She lives her part. And there could be no greater proof of this than "Slaves of Pride."

REALART PICTURE

A story of a Pennsylvania Dutch settlement—of a modern Cinderella, a scullery maid, the unwilling slave of a widower father and his two loutish sons. It tells of powerful contrasts—of false love and true love—of the unfolding of the bright flower of innocent girlhood triumphant even in a sombre environment of selfishness, sordidness and Satanic cruelty. This is the kind of picture that restores your faith in humanity and sends you home pleased, happy and optimistic.

"The Thirteenth Commandment" is a forceful and intensely dramatic motion picture. The big cabaret episode and the scene in which an automobile is wrecked in a smashing accident are real "thrillers."

This is a Wonderful Play Which Everybody Should See. Critics Say It Is the Best Ever Produced.

Presenting the Woman's Side of An Age-Old Argument

Why blame the woman for getting all she can out of life? The world applauds men for fighting for what they want, but let a woman use her natural weapons—beauty and wits—in her struggle for position and her share of this world's goods, and—oh, how the prudes and moralists condemn her! How would you enjoy being a little mouse in the corner during the most thrilling moments in the love affair of one of the most beautiful women in the world.

LINDEN THEATRE 63rd Street at Halsted

The rapidly increasing patronage of the popular Linden Theatre is no doubt due to the fact that Manager Thomas Johnson is ever alive to the requirements of his patrons and is clever enough to put over such productions as appeals to them. This is an art in the film game and "Tom" knows the ins and outs, which linked with service, courtesy and close attention to details, and last, but not least, an exceptionally good orchestra and pipe organ, makes the Linden a very popular photo playhouse.

Today, Friday, Jan. 30th, Robert Warwick in "The Tree of Knowledge," a Paramount-Artcraft picture. The Bitter Fruit! She had toyed with him—wrecked his life. Now she was waiting to signal her latest dupe to come and take her away. Maddened—his hands were closing on her throat—when her husband, his dearest friend, walked into the room! A story of tears in the Garden of Love, with Wanda Hawley, Kathlyn Williams, Theodore Kosloff, Tom Forman, and Irving Cummings.

COMING

THOMAS H. INCE presents DORIS MAY in "What's Your Husband Doing?" Coming!

Saturday, Jan. 31st—Some Show—Constance Binney in "Erstwhile Susan." A story of a Pennsylvania Dutch settlement—of a modern Cinderella, a scullery maid, the unwilling slave of a widower father and his two loutish sons. It tells of powerful contrasts—of false love and true love—of the unfolding of the bright flower of innocent girlhood triumphant even in a sombre environment of selfishness, sordidness and Satanic cruelty. This is the kind of picture that restores your faith in humanity and sends you home pleased, happy and optimistic. Also usual added reels.

Sunday, Feb. 1st, Bryant Washburn in "Too Much Johnson." Bryant Washburn is given ample opportunity to do all the funny things in his repertoire, is without doubt one of the most entertaining comedies in which this star has appeared in recent months. Also a good comedy.

Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 2nd and 3rd. The screen's most pleasing actress, Ethel Clayton, in "The 13th Commandment." Come and see it flaming on the screen in this vivid, vital tale of love and married life. Ethel Clayton in a role that searches the heart of every woman—deeply interests every man. What is the Thirteenth Commandment? If you are a woman you ought to know. If you are a man, you'd better see this amazing picture. And be sure she comes along.

Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 4th and 5th. Constance Talmadge in "Two Weeks." Miss Tadmadge takes the part of a chorus girl. She is in her tiny flat trying to escape from a bill collector, when a wealthy young clubman calls. She knows this means a good dinner and she is hungry. But the bill collector is camping on the trail. So she climbs on the fire escape and slides down four stories to the basement, where she tells the young man she just got back from Newport. But, alas, she has forgotten her kitchen apron and it is discovered under her coat. However, she is not a bit daunted, and she gets a square meal.

Friday and Saturday, Feb. 6th and 7th. Enid Bennett in "The Woman in the Suitcase." Here's a romance brimming with fun and adventure, yet big with the things that count in human lives. She found that the man she honored most was living a lie, so she played her own little game and trapped him. She advertised for a live young man to show her the "sights" of New York. Then she went the "rounds." At length she met the woman who was wrecking her home, and—you'll want to see what happened after that. A truly wonderful picture.

Coming—Watch for the announcement. Two of the new favorites, Douglas MacLean and Doris May in "What's Your Husband Doing?" You all remember their last picture, "Twenty-three and a Half Hours Leave;" one of the best you ever saw, wasn't it? This is the second picture the new "Twin Stars" have made. They are living up to the reputation they made from the start. If you missed "Twenty-three and a Half Hours Leave" don't miss this one. If you saw the first we are sure you won't miss it!

Few theatres in Chicago are so essentially neighborhood houses as is the pretty E. A. R. A glance at their displays in the Times or their reading notices will convince you of the up-to-date character of E. A. R. shows. The grand organ and extraordinary fine music is a feature appreciated by the discriminating public and as a consequence there is always a fine audience to witness every show, matinee or night, at the homey E. From William Gillette's Celebrated Play

Here's a "laughing-room-only" picture such as you don't meet up with in a month of holidays. It's just about as legitimate, bona-fide, unadulterated, full-pip comedy as the screen has been able to accomplish so far. And it came from a story that the last generation used to roar at regularly at least once a year. William Gillette's "Too Much Johnson" has been a synonym for the perfect stage farce for many years. And it hasn't lost an inch in pictures! It's all there and a lot funnier. It's full five reels of laughter without a let-down from beginning to end.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

There are very few burlesque patrons that know their old friend Jack Reid of the famous "Record Breakers" is a dramatic actor of rare ability. This season Mr. Reid is demonstrating his talent in a miniature comedy-drama of the present entitled "The Underworld," a romance of Chinatown. Laughs, tears, thrills and surprises fill the atmosphere during the twenty minutes that the little story is being told. The climax, in which the "Information Kid" kills a Chinaman to save his aged father from being murdered and the raid on

Of course the above is only one of the many novelties to be seen with the "Record Breakers" at the Englewood Theatre week starting Sunday matinee, Feb. 1st. There is also a chorus of twenty pretty girls, funny comedians, lively music and snappy dances.

NATIONAL THEATRE

There is going to be lots of fun in the coming production at the National Theatre by the National Theatre Co., which opens next Sunday afternoon, "What's Your Husband Doing?" is the cause of all the fun. It is not a moving picture, but a play where you can give your eyes and ears a treat and see the real people. "What's Your Husband Doing?" is a farce and it is all about two divorce lawyers, partners in business, but unknown to each other are interested in a very boisterously conducted road house, known as "Honeysuckle Inn." Though perfectly behaved and very properly married, they have reached that time in married life (if there be such a time) when a pretty face might cause an extra glance from either.

To make things interesting a real "Vamp" in the guise of a professional "co-respondent," breezes in with the news that she has just decided to become permanent hostess at "Honeysuckle Inn." Their interest being a secret one, neither partner can say much about such an arrangement.

Then enters a "pretty young thing," an old flame of one of the firm. They plan to meet at said roadhouse, and then the trouble starts. The wives of both men, not knowing the reputation of "Honeysuckle Inn," decide to take a run out there, inasmuch as both husbands have declared they would be out of town for the evening.

The nearby village constable is also present because of the rumor that a certain drink called "Honeysuckle Dream," would make a rabbit fight a bull dog, which is decidedly against the village ordinance.

The night finds all our friends assembled at the Inn, though they don't meet, they nearly do, so after innocently drinking a couple of said "dreams" the "sweet young thing" begins to see strange things. Both husbands try to start her home and in the midst of plenty of trouble for everyone concerned the place is "pinched."

Next morning we find the principal offenders in the village jail awaiting the judge's arrival so they may try to explain the exact nature of their frolic of the evening before.

The time flies from start to finish. One never knows what's coming next. It is a comedy hit.

It is remarkable how many people are going to Cuba instead of California and Florida to escape the rigorous spring weather, but then there is a reason—Cuba isn't "dry."

The man that stole Barney Rosenthal's private stock hasn't the fear of the Lord in his heart, so Barney says, or he would have left just one bottle.

I used to hear of the woman who "put everything on her back" but just now some of them don't put anything on their back from the equator north.

I heard from a friend in California who told of hotels charging fifteen dollars a day for rooms, and attempted to boost them to twenty-five, but he fell back on a contract made before. Many a fellow will scrimp "back home" for a year to enjoy a week in that burglarious land.

I once worked for Charley Harrison, one of the ablest editorial writers and managers in the eastern states. While he always wanted his paper to be up to the minute, he had no love for many of the alleged "stories" and correspondingly was annoyed by the writers of slush-gush affairs, and when one of them asked, "Now, Mr. Harrison, what will you give me for a red-hot story?" he answered: "Say, I'll give you $1,000 for one that will make my hair stand on end," and the joke was that Charley was as bald as a billiard ball. He didn't get the story.

A man was thrown from an automobile on Halsted st. the other day and seemed dazed and bewildered for a time. He pulled a large knife from his pocket and opening a villainous looking blade stepped out of the crowd which had assembled when Officer Casey seized him and took away the knife and the man protested strongly. After some argument he said: "Why, you don't think I would kill myself with it, do you?" "Will, Oi dunno," said Casey, "boot if Oi hed a face like yourn and sane it suddenly in a glass there is no tellin' phawt Oi might be doin'."

Sing a song of swellheads, a fellow full of gin, coming home at 2 a. m., his wife won't let him in. He puts his feet upon the porch, his head upon the ground, and all the same within his mug the wheels are going round. He thinks that he is sober and everyone is tight, and he's in his bedroom instead of out at night. He thinks the moon's a dollar and will buy a dozen drinks, and many other thoughts he thinks and drinks and thinks. But when his wife she cometh and with a hickory slat, he gives a shout and yelleth, "Now, Mary Ann, quit that."

At a certain nth-rate boarding house, a transient entered the dining room late for dinner. He was unsteady on his feet and the boarders realized at once that he had been imbibing freely. His first act, after seating himself, was to pick up his glass of water and throw it out of the window. His neighbor asked:
"What's the matter with the water, my friend?"
"I won't drink it."
"Why?"
"I won't ever drink water again while I live. And you oughtn't to drink it, either."
"But, my dear sir, why not?"
"'Why! Why!' you ask me!" he said, vehemently. "I'll tell you why. Water rots the soles off your shoes. What do you think it does to your stomach?"

Englewood Woman's Club

At the meeting of the Englewood Woman's club on Monday, Jan. 26th, Prof. Schevill gave the second of his lectures, the subject being Jugo-Slavia. Senor Donato Colafemina sang a group of Italian compositions. Miss Hesse spoke of the death of a club member, Miss Mattie Churchill. At the morning meeting Mrs. Hagey, chairman of the education department, presided, and introduced the speaker, Prof. Owen, whose subject was "The Present Crisis of the School Question."

On Feb. 2nd the class studying "The Constitutional Convention" will meet promptly at 10 o'clock and at 11 o'clock the department of art will have charge of the program. Miss Helen Parker, of the Art Institute, will speak on "The Evolution of Portrait Painting." The lecture will be illustrated with the stereopticon. At 2 o'clock Dr. Edward A. Steiner will lecture, his subject being "The Element of Youth in Our National Life." The board of Neighborhood House will be guests of honor.

On Feb. 13th the annual view day will be held at the Art Institute; those desiring tickets for the luncheon should make reservations with Mrs. Dunn or Mrs. Salisbury.

Workers are needed for the sewing classes held on Thursday at Hamilton Field House. The garments to be made are given by the Red Cross to the families of needy soldiers and sailors in Chicago. This "home service work" should receive a hearty support.

Hamilton Park Woman's Club

A dramatic lecture, "Jean Valjean," will be given by Dr. Preston Bradley to the Hamilton Park Woman's club Tuesday afternoon, February 3rd, at 2:15. Club chorus at 10 o'clock; music study class at 10:30. Senora Elene Landozuri gave a most interesting talk on "Mexico and Her Political Problems" last Tuesday at the Hamilton Park Woman's club. She also gave some delightful musical numbers in her own language.

The regular meeting of the Lewis-Champlin Parent-Teachers association will be held in room 204 of the school Tuesday, Feb. 3rd, at 2:30 o'clock. The program will be given by rooms 103 and 105, first grade. All parents are cordially invited to attend.

Mexican Lectures on Mexico

At the Englewood Sunday Evening club next Sunday evening the people of the community have an unusual opportunity to hear a reliable discussion of an important public question.

The Mexican situation is confused and blurred by all sorts of discussions, most of them either by people who have an axe to grind or by those who know little of their subject.

Prof. Abel Cantu, speaker at the Sunday Evening club next Sunday evening, is in neither class. He is a Mexican and an American. Educated in colleges and universities of both lands, he has been instructor and lecturer in American universities. He speaks with an accent, just noticeable enough to be pleasing; he breaks out sometimes in streaks of scintillating humor and all the way he carries information and feeling with reference to the present situation.

The Most Important Man in Chicago

Citizens of Englewood who are interested in their children—and that means all Englewood—have a notable event in store for them on the afternoon of Wednesday, Feb. 4th, at the Parker Parent-Teacher association meeting.

On that date Supt. Peter Mortenson, now justly known as "the most important man in Chicago," will speak on the burning question: "The Future Policy and Plans of the Chicago Public Schools." Everyone knows this is the question of the hour, and this the man to tell us what is to be done about it all.

The meeting will open, in the Parker gymnasium, at 2:45, and permission has been granted to keep the hall open till 5, contrary to a recent ruling. Tea will be served and everyone will have opportunity to meet Mr. Mortenson and enjoy a social half-hour with him and the teachers. Small children may be left in the kindergarten room where two young ladies will entertain them with games, leaving the mothers free for the meeting.
